Shoot for the moon, even if you miss you'll land amongs the stars. To be nobody but yourself in a world that doing its best to make you somebody else, is to fight th hardest battle you are ever going to fight. Which bridg to cross... which one to burn? Expecting the world t treat you fairly because you're a good person is lik expecting a bull not to attack because you're a vegatarian To err is human; to forgive divine. Thank you to anyon who went out of their way to help me with my art, life, o anything. It really means a lot to me.

Girls Soccer

The 2000 Rebel Girls Soccer Team was led by senior captains Kim Malin, Jane Staley, Kate Bohan, and Kate Miller. The team finished the season with a record of 12-5-3. Throughout the season, the girls practiced hard to improve their record remarkably from last year's 6-6-7. They won the first game of the state tournament against Coyle-Cassidy, 4-0, but suffered a devastating loss to Holliston, 1-0. With big wins over Dedham, Milton, Mansfield, Wellesley, Weymouth and Norwood, the team qualified for the state tournament early in the season. Junior Sarah Taglienti was the leading scorer with 13 goals and 6 assists and senior Kate Miller was right behind her with 11 goals and assists. The all stars included Juniors Meryl Carberry, Sarah Taglienti, Nicole Wolff, as well as seniors Jane Staley, Kim Malin and Kate Miller. They played in a game with other Herget Division all stars against the Carey Division all stars. The girls attended John Smith Soccer Camp during the summer, where they worked diligently to improve their soccer skills. The girls began the season with a new attitude to become an elite team in the Bay State Conference. Filling the void of 9 seniors to graduation last spring was a difficult challenge for Coach Tompkins and his players, but the record demonstrated the depth and skills of the 2000 team.

Boys Soccer

After losing thirteen seniors from last years Herget Division Championship team, the Rebels had a large task ahead of them. With eleven returning seniors, the Rebels were ready to rise to the occasion. The team had two main goals they hoped to accomplish this year. First, to defend their Herget Division title. Second, to qualify for the tournament. Both goals were achieved . The Rebels finished the regular season with a record of 10-4-4. Led by senior co-captains Chris Shea and Brandon Dubois, the Rebels defense was the backbone of the team. Commendable help in the defense was contributed by Dan Langmead, Chris Eicher, and Peter Butera. Contributing to the offensive attack with goals this year were: Chris Shea, Brandon Dubois, Geoff Munroe, Eric Stefansson, Ryan McAleese, Mike Anello, Kevin Donahue, Adam Tripp, Steve Cambria, and Chris Allen. When looking back at the season, the last game of the regular season comes to mind most. It was the pinnacle of the season. Here, the team defeated Wellesley, clinching the Herget Division title for a second year in a row. Next stop was the tournament. After winning a very competitive first game in the tournament against Holliston, the Rebels met an equally strong Franklin team. Franklin proved to be too strong for the Rebels, and ended a very successful season. Overall, the team has no regrets since both pre-season goals were accomplished.

Swimming & Diving

The Swimming and Diving team stormed into the Bay State Conference with their second best season in 18 years (7-5), finishing 7th overall. This was an achievement high above their expectations. The team added depth in every area and was stronger than past years. The team of 26 girls was led by spririted seniors Andrea Hafner, Cindy Harrington, and Captains Katie Keller and Kelly Springham. Much of the success this year is attributed to the contributions of the nine freshmen: Amanda McDermott, Tiffany Travers, Katie Barett, Kerri Clifford, Kerri Kennedy, Moira Connolly, Courtney Shea, Jill Hennessey, and Jess Moise. The Diving Team proved to be equally strong. With the guidance of Andrea Hafner, newcomers Christina Golonzka, Hennessey, and Vanessa Smith, each achieved personal success. Other members of the team included sophomores, Brie Gaffney, Golonzka, Julianne McCormick, Vanessa Smith, Kerin Springham; and juniors Gwen Puglia, Nikki Smith, Mary Thayer, Caroline Costa, Laura Donovan, Jess Fallon, and Lindsay McDonough. All the swimmers and divers proved this season that they can overcome all odds. The team looks forward to another great season with future Captains Lindsay McDonough, Nikki Smith and Donovan.

Golf

The Golf Team finished the year with a respectable record of 7-9, however they started off the year with a three game winning streak. The team was led by senior captains Drew Forte and Larry Amara. Drew Forte was the top player for the Rebels this year and finished with a 41 scoring average. The Walpole Country Club hosted a couple of great matches this year, including victories over arch rivals Norwood, Dedham, and Brockton. The Rebels used their home course advantage to the fullest by winning five of their eight home matches. Coach Mark Kitchen believed this team was good enough to qualify for the state tournament, but just hit too many bumps in the road, diminishing their post-season dreams.

Girls Cross Country

During this year's cross country season, the girls had a lot of fun. Although they did not have a very successful record, the team did posses a great deal of talent. Always reliable senior captain Julie Abdelahad held the number one spot for the team at each meet. Junior Monica Yerxa was consistently trailing close behind, with a promising '01 season ahead of her. Senior captain Kristine Johnson and first-year seniors Katie Oleskey and Allie Crowell ran consistently, taking places 3-5 for Walpole. Other important contributors to the team this year included senior Esther Kingsbury, juniors Marta Mazzawi, Kelly Richall, Monica Ibrahim, freshmen Jen Murphy and Kathleen Murphy. Although the team did not win any meets, they came very close, most notably vs. Norwood and Framingham. The team suffered a few injuries: Kelly Richall's shin splints forced her to sit out a few meets and Kathleen Murphy's shin problems forced her to sit out many of the meets; but they were always there to cheer the rest of the team, if they could not run. Granted, the team was not huge, but the girls that were on the team really enjoyed it and it showed with their pre-race group-hug and Coach Culliton's unconditional love. They always got a chuckle on the home course when running by the "Chicks dig runners" message. "Looking forward to practice after school with teammates was a refreshing thought for me during the school day," noted Crowell. Next year is promising with many returning runners.

Boys Cross Country

This season, the Boys Cross Country team learned that it did not matter if you won or lost but rather how you played the game. Its winless record may not have been impressive but the team was. Captains Ben Hagberg, Brett Fagan, and Dave Schofield led the team through the troublesome times and kept moral at an all time high with their quick wit and good nature. Other Rebel runners included Greg Dayton, Kevin Goguen, Mike Valle, Chris Landry, Sam Dent, Gavin Fiske, James Lane, John MacMillan, Brad Betzner, Matt Shea, James Wellock, Chris Rockwood, Ryan Stott, Brien Fagan, Peter Panos, and Matt Ardine. When asked to sum up the season, senior Dave Schofield said, "We may have lost all the meets, but at least we had a blast doing it." The team would like to thank Coach Lauren Culliton for keeping it interesting. "We appreciate it Coach!"

Cheerleading

The Rebel cheerleading squad started the season a little rocky, but ended with great accomplishments. In the beginning, the team, consisting of six seniors, two juniors, five sophomores, and six freshmen could barely put up a simple stunt. However, by the end of the season, they were able to master stunts such as basket tosses, pyramids and liberties. "It was a season of constant challenges and improvements," said senior Maura Sullivan. In addition, the team had to adapt to two new coaches. Luckily, it did not take long for the Rebel cheerleaders to put their trust in coaches Courtney Saulnier and Brea Gough. The new coaches stepped up to lead the Rebels to their best placement to date at the Shephard Hill Invitational and Bay State Competitions, where the team placed third and fifth, respectively. The team would like to thank everyone involved for their support. It brought the team a positive outlook and the confidence that was always within. Although the seniors will be sorely missed, next year's team looks promising considering all the talent remaining with the underclassmen. Perhaps senior Laura Wigmore said it best when she summed up the season by saying, "We're platinum."

Football

In the final season of the Coach Chuck Grant era, the 2000 Rebel Football team finished the season with a successful record of 8-3. The season began with a bang, as the Rebels were not scored upon in the first three games. Further, the team went undefeated for the first five games until a devastating 14-7 loss to archrival Norwood. The Rebel defense was ranked number one in the Bay State League. Captain Mike Hartnett, a three year starter, was considered to be one of the league's best quarterbacks. Despite the exciting beginning, the team suffered its fair share of losses. Tailback Steve Marzuolo tore his ACL in the Norwood game, putting him out for most of the season. Marzuolo came back to play on Thanksgiving to rush for over 100 yards and put a cap on his excellent career. Starting wide receiver Alex Viano and receiver/safety Steve Turner were also lost during the season due to injuries. The offensive line was anchored by seniors Mike Pruell, Mike Berry, Sean Elwood, and Billy Verrochi. Senior captain and Bay State League All Star Chris Navis led both the receiving core and the secondary. Captain Ricky Bartucca was also selected as a league All Star for his efforts at linebacker. Two way starter Kurt Vranich played an important role on the team at tight end and defensive end. Defensive end Matt "Ernie" Rinella also proved to be an asset to the team. Captain Billy Cuqua was the heart and soul of the defense, using his speed and agility to terrorize opposing centers. Tailback Brian Ludwig proved his skills during the Natick game rushing for 120 yards on only nine carries. Ludwig also returned kickoffs and made many of the tackles on kickoff and punt team. Josh Rorrie was a key member of the special teams, blocking numerous punts. Starting defensive back Sam Furlong used his toughness to help the defense shut down opposing teams. After four impressive years, the Rebel seniors can walk away with a feeling of accomplishment. With the loss of 16 seniors and Coach Grant, next year will be a rebuilding year for the Rebels.

This year the Porkers enjoyed yet another undefeated regular season. This was a great accomplishmet considering the loss of 13 seniors from the 99' season. The Porkers spent much of the season rebuilding and were able to fine tune their skills along the way. Someone once said, that all good things must come to an end, and the Porkers were not exempt from this saying. Although the girls cruised through the first three rounds of the tournament, victory was to be denied in the South Sectional Finals against Somerset. However, the Porkers have no reason to walk with their heads low since they finished the season with a record of 21-1. Further, they went undefeated for a sixth straight year in regular season and have been Bay State League Champs for the past ten years. The Porkers were led by senior co-captains and Bay State League All-Stars Christine Buckley and Allison Bolster. Other All-Stars were Kendra Zysk, Hillary Moloney, Jenna Cook, Amy Cunniff, Jen McDavitt, and second team All-Star Steph Bielagus. Senior leadership was also provided by Terryn Giampietro, Jessica Morris, Lisa Shevory, and Liz Steele. Next year's team has it's work cut out for it with the loss of eight seniors. The graduating Porkers wish to thank the coaches for all their hard work and dedication and will eagerly await the day victory will be restored to the Porker Republic.

Volleyball

"Together we fight, together we win" was the Walpole High Volleyball team's motto for the 2000 season. They had a great season and qualified for the state tournament. Despite the fact that they lost six seniors last year, they ended with a record of 7-9 which included a big win against Norwood. The last game of the season, their "senior night" was against Wellesley and resulted in a strong win for the Rebels. The team entered the tournament with great expectations, playing Natick in the first round. They came out with a win and then faced top-seeded Newton North. They fought hard and never gave up, but unfortunately the Rebels were unable to defeat them. The team was led by senior captains Jen DeMambro and Noelle Charrier and junior captain Carilyn Tately. Coach Heidi Bruschi was extremely pleased with the outcome of the team's season and is looking forward to next year's team, which will have the advantage of only losing two seniors to graduation.

The Rebels finished a spectacular season at 8-3 in the Bay State league and 14-7-1 overall, including a tie with undefeated Duxbury. The team finished fourth in the Bay State and fifth at the Division II South Sectionals. Senior co-captains Bill Verrochi and Zach Kline, along with seniors Chris Shea, Carmine Petruziello, and Rick Bartucca and team manager Mike Berry all put in great seasons. Shea and Verrochi both won mid-season tournaments at Weymouth and King Philip. At the Sectionals Verrochi (3rd, 215), Kline (2nd, 152), and Petruzziello (6th, 140) all qualified for the Division II State Tournament. Juniors Kevin Greener (3rd, 145), Ryan MacAleese (4th, 135), Greg Shea (5th, Heavyweight), and Sophmore Joe Fraser (2nd, 125) all also qualified, the largest showing Walpole has had in many years. Kline placed third at the Division II State Meet, qualifying him for the All-State meet. At the All-State Meet he placed eighth, becoming the first Walpole wrestler to win a match there. The Rebels keep several key underclassmen next year, promising another great season.

Gymnastics

The Rebel Gymnastics team had a fantastic season. The girls were able to accomplish an 11-1 record, only losing their last meet to Weymouth. New coaches Dayna Lia, and assistant coach Kristin Swenson helped the team with their successful season. Jessica Doyle, Meridith Swenson, and Nicole Rockwood were the three captains that led the Rebels all the way to the South Sectional meet. At the Bay State Conference meet there were many placements. Kathryn Lambergs took first on the bars and fourth in the all-around, Maria Gerth took sixth on floor, Nicole Rockwood received sixth on the beam, Meridith Swenson took sixth on the vault and Jessica Doyle took first on the floor and second in the all-around. Doyle also received a special award, Senior Gymnast of the Year. She moved on to the State Individual Championships and placed well. While at Walpole, Doyle has broken every record with the exception of the vault. Seniors Laura Huckle and Erika Svensson showed great performances on the floor and vault. Also sophomores Michelle Bradbury, Laura-Kate Cavanaugh, and freshman Liz Monahan proved that there is much hope for the future of this team. The girls were missing a key contributor this year, junior Kristen Ridge, who was out with a back injury. Hopefully she will be able to return next year to continue the success of the Rebels.

Hockey

This year's hockey team boasted an 8-9-3 record improving greatly from last years team. The team was lead by Captain Billy Cuqua and assistant Captains Rick Lipsett and Bob Arey. Senior Erik Stefansson lead the team in scoring. The team played well in the difficult Bay State League. In the second game of the season the Rebels were losing 3-0 to Weymouth, they quickly came back and scored three goals. With seconds left on the clock in the third period Walpole scored and seized the victory over the Wildcats 4-3. The highlight of the season was the final gamewhen the Rebels faced the Medfield Warriors. The eager Rebels ended the season on a high note defeating Medfield by a score of 3-1. Also contributing to the success of the season were seniors Greg Thomas, Nick Rose, and Steve Turner. The Rebels sent three players to the Bay State League All-Star game. They were Billy Cuqua, Rick Lipsett, and Erik Stefansson. This years squad missed the tournament by only a few points. If there was a let down this season, it was when 11 of the 20 Varsity players were forced to watch the Dedham game from the stands. However, the Junior Varsity gave it their all. Although Walpole has not made it to the post-season in the past three seasons, many of the letter men are returning. Next year, the team should have a good shot at the tournament.

Girls Winter Track

The girls winter track team was led by coaches John Barry and Chris Reeve and captains Kate Bohan and Terryn Giampietro. The team finished the year 2-4-1 but had many significant individual performances for a team that had only 17 runners and throwers. The most prolific point scorers were Conference Champion in the 300m Lisa Bielenin and MVP Meryl Carberry who finished 2nd in the conference in the hurdles. Bielenin went on to finish 5th in the last meet and qualified for the state meet as well. Carberry, the most versatile athlete competed in the long jump at class C's and finished 3rd in that meet and 12th at All States. Carberry and Bielenin were joined by 300 and 55m runner Kate Bohan and 600m runner Meghan O'Toole to run the 4 X 400 relay. The team finished 5th in the class and 13th in the All State meet. The distance runners were led by sophomore sensations Christine Monahan and Cory Giampietro. Monahan was a mainstay in the 1000m yet finished 6th in the mile at the Freshman/Sophomore Auerbach meet with freshman Leanne Forsberg (the only freshman to earn a varsity letter). Cory ran the mile in most events, however she finished 4th in the two mile at the Auerbach meet. Senior Terryn Giampetro and Meghan Conklin were the point scorers in the two mile. The high jumpers were led by Erin Black who also competed in the hurdles and Anneka Landgraf who ran the 300m as well. The throwers were led by Erica Pritchard who established herself to be one of the best throwers in the conference for the next two years. The surprise thrower happened to be Carberry as she threw a team best 28 feet in the MSTCA Pentathalon and finished 10th overall. The team will be led next year by captains Lisa Bielenin and Meryl Carberry as they will lead what looks to be one of the best teams Walpole will ever have.

Boys Winter Track

The boys winter track team enjoyed much success this past year as the team finished 3rd in the Herget division under Coach John Barry, and Assistant Coach, Chris Reeve. Senior Captains were Shane Kelly, Ben Hagberg, and Dan Bielenin. The team's scoring in the distance races came from Ben Hagberg and People's Captain Brett Fagan in the mile, Dan Bielenin and Nick Crowley in the 1000, and Tristan Bandoni and Brendan Mercier in the two mile. The 4 X 800 team of Bielenin, Hagberg, Crowley and Fagan finished 5th in the class meet and 13th in the state meet. Sophomore Peter Butera and junior Sean Crowley were the main scorers in the 600. Butera finished 5th in the conference and qualified for the class meet. The field events were led by Dave Chase, Erwin Francois, and Jim Kelly in the high jump and Chris Quintanilla, Matt Hunt, and Keith Farrell in the shot put. However, the team's main scoring came from the sprinters and hurdlers. Jeff Donovan, Chase and Lucas Gormely combined with Jim Staley to finish 6th in the class C relays in the shuddle hurdle event. Donovan won all but one dual meet in the regular season and will be considered one of the top returning hurdlers in the conference next year. MVP Shane Kelly and Sam Furlong led the team in the 300 and 55 meter runs. Both qualified for the class meet in both events and Kelly went on to finish 2nd in the conference in the 55 meters, 5th in the class meet, 6th in the All State Meet, and had the 9th fastest time at the New England Championships. His time of 6.72 broke the old school record. Most of the team will compete during the spring to improve in their events. The team will be led next year by captains Jeff Donovan, Matt Hunt and Nick Crowley.

The team returned to the cozy confines of the renovated gym with high hopes and great expectations for the season. With a majority of the team returning and high rankings from every major newspaper around, it looked to be the year of all years. Returning starters Ingrid Johnson, Jenna Cook, Marta Mazzawi, Jenna Gale, and Kristen DiCalogero were augmented by the skill of transfer student Nicole Wolff. Along the road to glory, there were obstacles. Captains Jane Staley and Elicia Niland and junior Kerri Stumpo were sidelined with injuries for the majority of the season. Despite these losses, the team remained unified. Sophomore Kathleen Ryan, and juniors Mary Thayer and Ashley Collins rounded out the roster. The Rebels had a perfect undefeated regular season. They captured the Bay State League title for the third consecutive year and headed into the State Tournament with a record of 20-0. The team cruised through the sectional tournament defeating King Philip, Wellesley, Bishop Feehan and North Attleboro. The next stop was the State Semifinals at the Fleet Center. Although the team gave it their all, victory was to be denied for the first time during a brutal overtime battle against Concord-Carlisle. In retrospect, it may not have been the year of all years, but it was still a great year for the Lady Rebels. The team captured the imagination of the school and the community as a whole. Next year should be an equally impressive year since most of the varsity players will be returning.

Boys Basketball

The Rebels Boys Basketball team had all but two players return to the starting lineup from last years squad. Returning players, and this years seniors were Mike Hartnett, Kurt Vranich, John Langley, Geoff Munroe, Dan McDermott, and Chris Eicher. New additions to the team were sophomores Kasheef Wyzard and Brian Hartnett, freshmen Matt DiCalogero and Tim Clifford, and junior Kelton Francis. Led by a crew of six seniors, the team battled, night in and night out against fierce opponents. All year long the team played to the best of its ability, and never lacked effort. Despite their best efforts, they would finish with only on win. The win came at the end of the season in the Rodman Tournament. Although the team was winless more often than not, each player can be considered a winner for never giving up. The senior members contributed to the team in their own ways and paved the way for the younger players on the team. Underclassmen also contributed valuable time this year and put up good numbers. Next year should be another rebuilding year as there is plenty of room for improvement.

Girls Lacrosse

The Walpole Girls Lacrosse team has had yet another successful season. Coached by Mike Vitelli, the team went 9-7-1, qualifying for the tournament for the second consecutive year. Led by captains Lisa Shevory, Colleen Cleveland, Christine Buckley, and Kaitlyn MacAleese, the team beat the teams they needed to, as well as the ones they were not supposed to beat. Adding significant leadership were seniors Teresa Landgraf, Allison Crowell, and Kristine Johnson. At one point in the 2001 season, the team achieved a five game winning streak and set a new record at Walpole High. The success of this talented team is largely attributed to their team unity and strong friendship. Within the team, there were four Bay State League "All-Stars" (Christine Buckley, Lisa Shevory, Kristine Johnson and Kaitlyn MacAleese). The offensive end was fantastic with Colleen Cleveland, Kaitlyn MacAleese, and Lisa Shevory ruling the field. On the defensive end, there was some outstanding defensive play by all involved that kept the team in the game during difficult situations. Lastly, Christine Buckley continued her awesome goal tending and saved the day on more than one occasion. All in all, the team had a fabulous season. Next year, the pressure will be on to top this season. Best of Luck 2002!

Boys Lacrosse

This past season for the Boys Rebel Lacrosse team has been both a challenging one, as well as a learning one. With a schedule that can be seen as one of the most difficult in the Greater Boston area, the Rebels struggled to stay on top of its tough competition. Despite several close calls in overtime and possible game winning comebacks, the Rebels still only managed to pull off one win for the season. However, the win was against its biggest rival, Brookline. This victory was the highlight of the season for many. The largest and most promising change for the boys lacrosse program is the new head coach, Andalo, who teaches at Norwood High School. He recently passed up an opportunity to coach for a possible upcoming Norwood lacrosse team, due to his devotion to the Walpole Rebels program. Throughout the season's commencement, there have been many key players that have distinguished themselves as promising athletes for future years. A few of these distinguished athletes are Jeff Lamoureux, Sean and Nick Crowley, Adam Cox and Greg Shea. Despite a discouraging record this year, the Rebels will return confident next year, with both a promising coach as well as a solid group of athletes.

Girls Tennis

It was a season of learning and fun under the direction of Coach Christopher Jean. He emphasized the development of consistent strokes and volleys. This was evident especially in the drills team members performed, focusing on net and slicing shots. Team captains Hillary Moloney and Kate Miller, number one and two respectively for the Rebels, used these shots to good effect throughout the season. Moloney, who was injured prior to the season opener, proved nonetheless an inspiration to teammates for her fortitude and effort on the courts. For this she earned the team's Most Valuable Player Award. Miller, winner of the Most Improved Player Award, developed a net attack this season, and used it to win several key matches for the Rebels. Impressive freshman Allison Shaw held the Rebels' third singles spot, where she battled match after match against more experienced players throughout the league. Senior Lori Andrews returned to Rebel tennis and showed the kind of team spirit that earned her the Coach's Award for her fun-loving approach to the sport and her motivation on the first doubles team. Rounding out first doubles was sophomore Courtney Day. Second doubles was anchored by seniors Tara O'Neil and Tara Randhawa, whose experience as a team helped them compete against difficult opponents. Overall, the team had a respectable season despite its record of 4-12. Jean called it a "season of near victories." Next season promises to be a challenging one as five seniors are departing, but Jean believes his goals will nonetheless be achieved, "If the girls have fun and learn while working hard, then the season is a success in my eyes."

Some might say that a season with a record of 3-13 would be considered unimpressive. However, some would be wrong. Since the team began its season, it has showed drastic improvement in an extremely competitive Bay State League. The team was led by coach Shawn Gough, as well as captains Dan Langmead and Chris Bergen. Seniors Greg Dayton, Kevin Donahue, Ivan Escudero, Chet Murray and Brett Fagan were key contributors, as was fleet-footed junior Rory Panagotopulos. Next year's team will have its work cut out for it, as it attempts to fill the void left by the graduating seniors. The undergraduates would like to wish the seniors much luck and prosperity as they exit the tennis court and enter the court of life. In conclusion, some might say the future looks bright for this program, as freshman-phenom Michael Miller, as well as sophomores Jon-Erik Tryggestad, Brendan Cochrane, Andrew Bering and John Guy are all eagerly anticipating a chance to lead their team to a victory. Some would be right.

Softball

This year, the Rebels returned with a new attitude and a strong desire to win. Led by senior co-captains Kim Malin and Jane Staley, the Rebels finished with a 17-6 record, including impressive wins over Brockton and a first round tournament victory over Holliston. Unquestionably the biggest reason for the success of this year's team was the stellar defense displayed by the Rebels. The all junior infield consisted of 1st baseman Meghan Murphy, 2nd baseman Ashley Collins, Meghan Oberacker at third base, and Sarah Taglienti playing shortstop. Junior pitcher Christine Nannicelli was only able to pitch half of the games due to a nagging injury. Junior Amy Cunniff and sophomore Liz Capone helped fill the void. Some credit should be given to junior catcher Jayne Bethoney, who caught all 23 games behind the plate for all three pitchers. In the outfield, the senior captains were joined by right fielder Allyson Lipsett. All three patrolled the outfield making tremendous catches all season long. This defense, and the offense that eventually came around, boosted the Rebels into the state tournament, where they met and defeated a tough Holliston team. The girls moved on to face Milton, but fell to the Wildcats 2-0 in a hard fought game. Although the graduating seniors will be greatly missed, next year the team has great potential. The entire program would like to thank Kim Malin and Jane Staley for their great leadership and hard work and wish them well next year. Also, thanks to Coach Murphy, Coach Taglienti, and Coach Brown for their support.

The 2001 team continued the Rebel tradition by becoming the twenty-third consecutive group to have a season with a record of .500 or better. The Rebels finished the season 11-11 (9-9 in the Bay State League) and made it to the second round of the Division 1 South Sectional Tournament. The team was led by a strong core of six seniors. Captains Chris Navis and Shane Kelly, along with fellow seniors Rick Lipsett, Eric Stefansson, Larry Amara and Bob Arey provided the explosive offense and solid defense that was key to the Rebel's success. With Navis and Arey in the middle infield and Lipsett and Stefansson at the corners, the Rebel infield was filled with talent and experience. Larry Amara and Bob Arey were the two aces of the pitching staff and consistently kept opposing hitters off balance. The highlight of the season came in the first round of the tournament when the team upset Bay State League foe Framingham with a 6-3 score. The game served as sweet revenge, for it was Framingham that had caused the team's early tournament loss last year. At the end of the year, Navis and Kelly were honored as Bay State League "All-Stars" for their season success. With a talented group of players returning next year, the team is poised to continue the success and tradition that comes along with being a Rebel.

Girls Spring Track

This season for the Rebel Girls Spring Track team may not have been the best in the conference, but the team has improved immensely from last year. With its record of 1-1-5 this year, the team is ready for more victories in the future. Despite the limited number of girls on the team, the team was able to start off the season with a tie to rival, Norwood and a win against Milton. The three senior captains, Katlyn Bohan, Terryn Giampietro, and Julie Abdelahad did an excellent job leading the team throughout the season. Bohan along with juniors Jen McDavitt and Lisa Bielenin and sophomores Christine Monahan and Erica Pritchard all advanced to the Class C State meet for their individual events. The regular season dual meets went well, with every athlete improving throughout the season. But the season was not over for some after the dual meets. Seven of the girls advanced a step or two further. Going a step further, freshman Denise Eures and junior Meryl Carberry both advanced to the All-State Meet. Eures had gone undefeated in the 100 and 200 meter races throughout the season while Carberry was undefeated in her four events all season earning 140 points. This season showed a lot of talent and potential for years to come.

Boys Spring Track

The Boys Spring Track team took a small step up from last year. The team upped its record from 0-7 the year before to a 1-6 finish this year. The record is a definite understatement of the individual talent that the team possesses. The senior captains consisted of long time runners Dan Bielenin and Ben Hagberg. Bielenin, the teams best 800M runner placed 5th in the Bay State Conference and qualified for the States. Hagberg was always a contender, whether it be in the 800M, 1 mile, or 2 mile events during the year. He also placed in every dual meet during the year, an accomplishment which only a few boys could do for the team this season. Other seniors included long time sprinter Sam Furlong who was the Rebels top runner in the 100M and 200M dashes. Chris Quintanilla, a first year javelin thrower, was an added surprise to the team being only one of the four Rebels to qualify for the States. David Chase was a work horse during the year, running both the 110M high hurdles and 300M hurdles, as well as competing in the high jump. Senior Chris Landry was also another sweet surprise for the Rebels taking a grasp onto the pole vault, an event which few can even contend in. Other Rebels in the spotlight included juniors Jeff Donovan and Coleman Cecca. It will be tough to replace the six senior Rebels, but the team has a lot of young talent and is looking forward to making a stand in the Bay State Conference in the years to come.

Graduation

Senior Class President: Andrew Winston

A popular sentiment that an outgoing senior president can offer his student body on graduation day is that "Today is the first day of the rest of our lives. Yesterday is not ours to recover, but tomorrow is ours to win or lose". We, the Class of 2001, have spoken loudly and productively in our four years at Walpole High School that we are not a group of individuals that are satisfied with "just good enough or business as usual". Rather, we are a class on the move, a class that aspires to grow intellectually, achieve vocationally, contribute to our society and we're focussed on "winning our tomorrows". The Class of 2001 is about CHANGE! We live that goal every day of our lives. Our class is very special. We have been leaders and contributors in every aspect of our school and community's government. Among us are talented athletes, musicians, scholars, artists, actors and actresses. We are skilled in business, mathematics, foreign languages, computer technology, and many other areas. We serve on school, town and a variety of civic committees and organizations. We generously volunteer our time and resources to charities that assist the elderly, the poor and the sick. None of us have mastered all that we've touched but we're certainly not afraid to attempt to succeed, or on rare occasions, to fail at a challenge. Martin Luther King, Jr. once said, "Everybody can be great ... because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and verb agree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love." I know almost all of you, and I know how caring, committed and talented our class truly is. I know that each and every one of us has the potential to succeed and to become great.

Creating CHANGE in the world, society or even our families can be realized at different levels. I would like to share one of my favorite stories with you. Years ago my Dad and a friend were walking along a Florida beach during a college Spring break. Up ahead they saw seagulls swarming over the beach. As they got closer, they saw that there were hundreds, maybe thousands of baby sea turtles hatching and dashing to the sea. The turtles were easy prey for the skilled gull hunters and they were being picked off two at a time. My Dad and his friend grabbed a couple of towels that were lying on the beach and began to fill the towels with baby turtles. They would then sprint to the ocean's edge and empty the towels into the sea. Away the babies would swim. They repeated this relay for 30-45 minutes. The two were exhausted but they kept at it until either they or the seagulls had reached all of the turtles. When they collapsed on the beach to catch their breath a bather came along to claim her towels. She was kind of laughing at the two young men when she said, "You couldn't possibly have saved all of them. There are simply too many. And don't you realize that this is probably happening on hundreds of beaches all up and down this coast? Can't you see that this couldn't possibly make a difference?" My father's friend smiled, bent down and picked up yet another wayward baby turtle running to the sea, and as he dropped into the surf, he replied, "Made a difference to that one!"

It would have been easy for the two young men to feel disconnected or apathetic when they came upon the turtles being destroyed. They might have justified in their minds that there were too many to save and that they didn't have time to be playing God in this situation. I'm pleased to say decades later that they did get involved and that their contribution that day did make a difference in the lives and preservation of these creatures. Their decision to get involved and to create CHANGE certainly impacted their own lives and character too. As we work to achieve our goals, we need to keep in mind that even a seemingly insignificant act can make a big difference. Everyday, we influence the lives of others and other living things. An Ethiopian proverb states, "When spider webs unite, they can tie up a lion." Through the united talents and successes of each member of our class, we can tie up a lion, and we can CHANGE the world.

Our class meets today at a crossroads. We've completed our high school education and we're about to take a giant step forward to further our education or to begin a career. We cannot stop or avoid this metamorphosis, nor would we try. It's as if we're on stage and the audience is focused on our lives and our potential. It's exciting, it's overwhelming and it's a bit scary too. With this euphoria also come the questions. What if college is not what I expected? Will I be able to support myself? Where will I be in a year or in five? Might I disappoint my family, or myself? Confucius once said, "Our greatest glory is not in never failing but in rising every time we fall." As a class, we have done our best not to fail but as humans we've all stumbled from time to time. Failure doesn't exclude parents, teachers and political leaders too. As adults setting out we've got to accept the consequences and reality that CHANGE creates opportunity and it can be the cause for failure too. However, if you're an odds maker, our chances are looking pretty good! With help from our parents, educational and community leaders we've developed strong morals and work habits. We've constructed and fortified our educational foundation. And by sharing years of friendship and respect with classmates and friends, we have developed the interpersonal skills that we require to leave our community and to meet and succeed in the world of opportunities that lie ahead of us.

Dr. Seuss said it best..

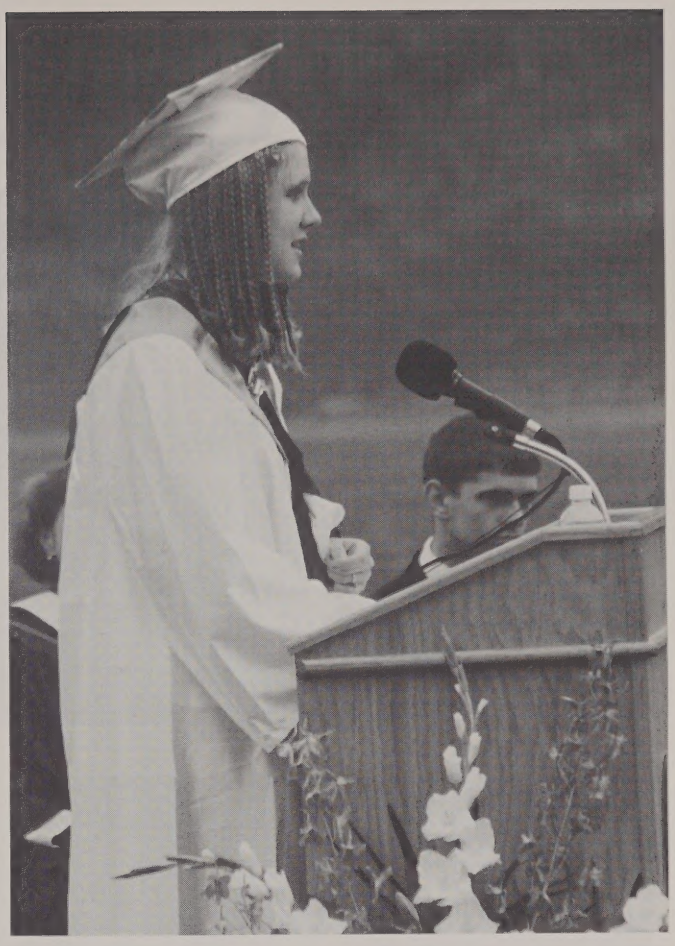
So... be your name Buxbaum or Bixby or Bray or Mordecai Ali Allen O'Shea,

You're off to Great Places! Today is your day!

Your mountain is waiting. So...get on your way!

Good luck in your lives Class of 2001, Change the World!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Valedictorian: Sonya Teich



Good afternoon guests, faculty members, family and the Class of 2001.

When I first began to write this speech, I sat there, trying to think of something clever to do or say. I tried to think of some sort of gimmick I could use to make all of you think that I was clever or witty or funny. Unfortunately, I'm not very clever or witty or funny, so I was sitting there for quite some time. But an idea did come to me while I was doing all that thinking. I realized that trying to make myself appear a certain way is not really the point here. In the long run, it doesn't matter if you all leave here with an impression of me; it matters that you leave with an impression of what I say. And a gimmick is not what I want to leave with you. As we go through life, I am certain we will learn that substance matters more than image. And while who you appear to be might seem important in high school, who you are is what is important from now on.

In high school, we are often judged on our reputation. During my high school years, my good reputation allowed me to get away with some things. If I forgot to do my homework, I would say, I must have left it at home. Can I pass it in tomorrow? With a very concerned look on my face, and more often than not, the teacher would let me. I could walk down halls that I wasn't supposed to be walking down, and I wouldn't get stopped by a teacher because I was a good kid. And I'm sure the opposite is true. Bad kids weren't given any breaks because they were bad kids. We also judge our peers by their reputations. Some people are jocks, some people are artists, some people are punks, some people are preppy, some people are popular, some people are nerds. But those words are just labels. A person isn't automatically a certain way because of his or her reputation. Excluding my friends, I think that most people think I am a shy, quiet person because that's who I appear to be. In reality, I'm a very different person. And I think everyone is that way. We all have an inner nature that no one can discern simply through knowing our reputation. But we believe what we hear and have certain prejudices against others we have never met simply because of the friends that they have or the way they look. There's something both comforting and frustrating about having others perceive us in a certain way because of superficial reasons. It gives us a feeling of security. If people don't know who we really are, they can't judge the real us. They can only judge us with what they perceive. There's a certain sense of security in a reputation. But at the same time, we want everyone to know our real opinions, our true character and who we really are. Following today, we will all find ourselves in a completely new world, whether it's at college, in the military, or in the work force. And I think the most exciting, and terrifying thing about graduating today is that no matter where we go, these reputations we all have will be gone forever.

What I want to say to you all today is this: Embrace the chance to become whoever you want to become. Don't let the person you were in high school stop you from becoming the person you would like to be. Some of you will relish the opportunity to start over again. Some of you will be terrified. But whether you are incredibly excited or incredibly nervous, just remember that this is a once in a lifetime chance. Never again will you have such a perfect opportunity to reshape yourself. But in reshaping yourself, remember all the experiences you have had at Walpole High School. Remember all the times you have been proud of yourself, or you have had fun, or you have just been happy being you. Take the version of yourself that you like best and try your hardest to show it to everyone you meet.

Salutatorian: Zachary Kline

It is with mixed emotions that I stand before you today. I am proud of this class and its many accomplishments, both past and still to come. I am full of anticipation for the years ahead, as we leave this school and head off to careers, travel, or college. But I am also saddened, for I know that this graduation brings with it a parting, that the inescapable tide of time inevitably bears us along with it, and that contrary to all the well intentioned notions of Jay Gatsby, we cannot repeat the past.

It is only vaguely that I remember boarding the bus for my first day of kindergarten all those years ago, with my bright red plastic lunchbox and my blue windbreaker that now seems so incredibly small. I can't really recall what was going through that little mind of mine back then, but I think it had something to do with the expectation that my days of fun and happiness were over forever.

I took out the photo album several days ago to help me remember all of this, and I noticed something that I had never noticed before. In the pictures of us all arriving for the first time at Old Post Road Elementary School, there was a little boy in a gray sweater waiting patiently in the line next to my frowning face. Although at the time I did not know him, that boy became one of my closest friends. Standing there frowning, I never dreamed of the friendship and the fun that I would share with that boy, and with others, or that I would one; day be Salutatorian and be standing here giving a speech.

Looking back at those pictures reminded me of something. In life, whenever we leave one place, we cannot help but to arrive at another, and that new place will always contain innumerable wonders for us to uncover

Yet I am sure as well that Longfellow was not completely right when he said, "They who go/ Feel not the pain of parting; it is they/ Who stay behind that suffer," for I have done both, and unfortunately, inevitably, there is pain felt on both sides. One of my favorite movies contains as, a side note, the line; "Life is pain. Anyone who says otherwise is selling something." Yes, life is pain. But overwhelmingly, life is joy as well, and although we cannot return to a point in time, we can return to a point in space. I would urge you all to not let go of the friendships we have forged here. We are leaving, but hopefully we will all return and continue to share with each other what we have learned in the world, as we have done for the past seventeen, eighteen or nineteen years.

Treasure these friends, and treasure as well your parents. For they too have ventured into the great unknown and returned to tell about it. Listen to what they say, because they love you, and because what they have to say is worth hearing. Get to know them, and you will find they are more like you than you may have realized. I would like to close with what I have learned from mine.

In the grand scheme of things, money does not matter. Houses, cars, and swimming pools do not matter. Events do not matter. Power does not matter. People matter. Love each other and we will make the world into a place everyone will want to live in.

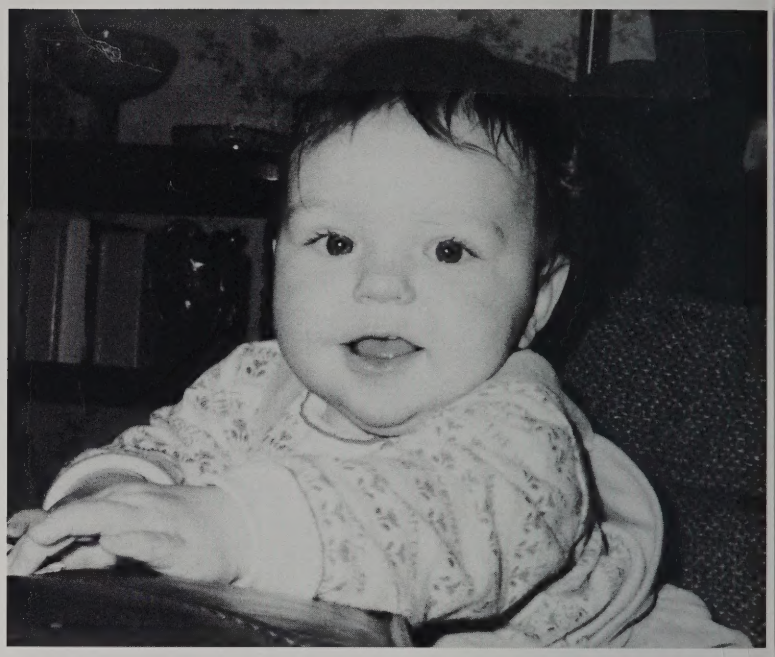
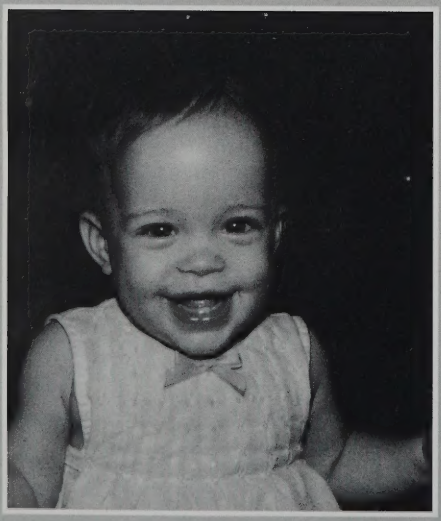
We're proud of you.
Hold on to your dreams,
as you reach for the stars.
Congratulations
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Samatha



Kate Miller



Kate,

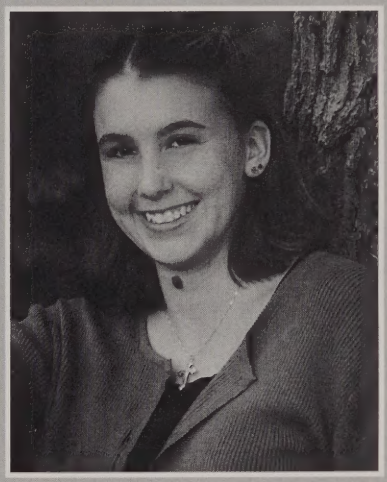
You have given us so many wonderful memories over the past four years. We are so proud of you and all that you have accomplished.

Love,
Mom, Dad & Michael

Sheena Dorci

Sheena:
The day you came into our lives, we could never imagine what a special gift God gave us or how rewarding it would be to be parents of such a precious little girl. The first day that you went off to nursery school you cried and pleaded with us to let you stay home.

Now we are the ones with tears in our eyes as you plan to go off to college, but they are tears of joy; for all that you have accomplished and all that you will achieve.



No matter what we will always be there for you. Most of all, we are so proud to be the parents of such a wonderful young lady that you have grown to be.

Love,

Mom & Dad

Ryan Connors

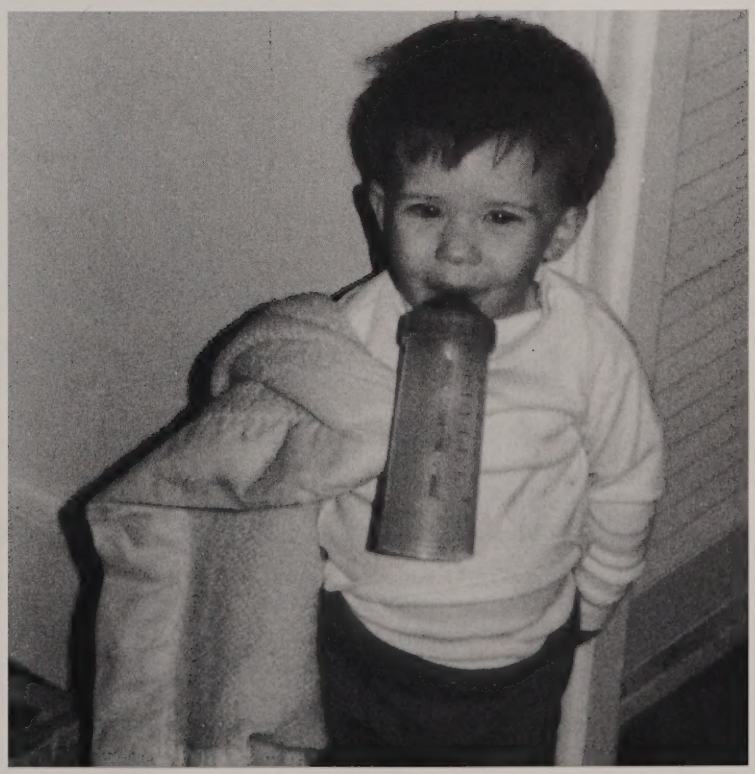
You are our pride and joy.

We love you very much.

Keep dreaming.

Keep reaching for the stars!

Love, Mom and Dad



Katlyn Bohan

Kate,

Thanks for all the unforgetable memories. Enjoy every minute of your life.

"Eye of the Tiger."

We love you, Dad, Mom, Kelsey, Clara and Christa

Congratulations and Best Wishes With Your Future.

Kerrin-
Congrats! You have made us so proud. We know you will succeed at anything you put your heart to.

Love You Always-
Mom, Dad, Colleen, Danielle,
Dennis, Matthew & Ryan.

To Alli, Laura, and all of your friends and classmates,
These words of Bob Dylan express our wishes for you all....

MAY GOD BLESS AND KEEP YOU ALWAYS, MAY YOUR WISHES ALL COME TRUE.
MAY YOU ALWAYS DO FOR OTHERS, AND LET OTHERS DO FOR YOU.
MAY YOU BUILD A LADDER TO THE STARS, AND CLIMB ON EVERY RUNG.
MAY YOU STAY FOREVER YOUNG.

MAY YOU GROW UP TO BE RIGHTEOUS, MAY YOU GROW UP TO BE TRUE.
MAY YOU ALWAYS KNOW THE TRUTH, AND SEE THE LIGHTS SURROUNDING YOU.
MAY YOU ALWAYS BE COURAGEOUS, STAND UPRIGHT AND BE STRONG.
MAY YOU STAY FOREVER YOUNG.

MAY YOUR HANDS ALWAYS BE BUSY, MAY YOUR FEET ALWAYS BE SWIFT.
MAY YOU HAVE A STRONG FOUNDATION WHEN THE WINDS OF CHANGES SHIFT.
MAY YOUR HEART ALWAYS BE JOYFUL, MAY YOUR SONG ALWAYS BE SUNG.
MAY YOU STAY FOREVER YOUNG.

With love from the Bolsters and the Huckles

Congratulations

The Future Is Wide Open!
